Review of Week 4
Week 5 – Midterm1 on Tuesday!

Section C Notes:

- Lecture 6 | Making Sense of Time, Dr. Núñez
- Lecture 7 | What are you learning when you learn a language?, Dr. Creel

COGS1 – F18
Midterm 1 Review
October 25, 2018

Midterm1: October 30
Remember: EC-Pre-reading online quiz....

5 Oct 30 – Nov 1

*Cetaceans have Complex Brains for Complex Cognition
(*EC Prereading quiz: TritonEd: Wednesday, October 31 @ 4pm – Thursday, November 1 @ 9:00am)

Midterm-1 Exam in class (10/30)
Covers weeks 1-3
Scantron provided.
Bring a pencil & UCSD ID.
Dr. Johnson (11/1)
Animal Intelligence and Alien Minds.
What is behaviorism? What are some of the main concepts and important figures of this approach?

What is cognitivism? What are some of the main concepts and important figures of this approach? How does it differ from behaviourism?

How can computers be used to study cognition and think about it? What are the limitations of these methods?

What is post-cognitivism? What are some of the main concepts and important figures of this approach? How does it differ from cognitivism?
Scott—continued

- From the reading: What is distributed cognition? How is the way we think about memory influenced by distributed cognition?
- From the reading: What does “Society of mind” mean?
- From the reading: What are cognitive artifacts?
- What does cognitive ethnography study? What are the important aspects of how cognitive ethnography is conducted?