21 February 2007

Provisional Agenda for 22 February 2007

The situation in Lebanon

Communication dated 21 February 2007 from the Permanent Representative of the State of Israel to the United Nations and the Permanent Representative of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland to the United Nations addressed to the President of the Security Council (S1/2007/301)

The situation in Darfur (Sudan)

Communication dated 21 February 2007 from the Permanent Representative of the Republic of the Congo to the United Nations addressed to the President of the Security Council (S1/2007/302)
The Security Council,

Pleased by the observance of the cease-fire agreement, the foundation for sustainable peace,

Deeply concerned by the stagnant economic and humanitarian situations, as well as the slow pace of redevelopment efforts within Lebanon,

Stressing the importance of the expansion of the control of the Government of Lebanon throughout their sovereign borders, and concerned over the absence of such control,

Welcoming recent efforts by the Government of Lebanon in their active role in continuing to disarm Hizbollah and all non-state militia groups,

Acknowledging the role of UNIFIL and their continued presence in Lebanon,

Noting with regret the continued support of non-state militias by foreign sources,

Mindful of future political unrest in light of recent assassinations of Lebanese political leaders,

1. Demands the immediate release of kidnapped Israeli soldiers;

2. Calls upon the Lebanese government to assume and assert sole responsibility for all matters of state, primarily the management of military affairs and of the delicate economic situation, so as to prevent further foreign influence;

3. Renewing its appeal for full Hizbollah disarmament, allowing the Lebanese military to establish legitimacy and complete jurisdiction within their borders;

4. Directs the Lebanese government to oversee and maintain full control over all weapons transactions across and within their borders;

5. Recommends UNIFIL forces be deployed to points of entry along the Lebanese border, establishing checkpoints to further ensure that no unauthorized trade takes place that may benefit militant militias within Lebanon;
6. Urges UN member nations to pledge additional funds to aid and expedite the redevelopment process within Lebanon;

7. Requests the accelerated deployment of the full 15,000 UNIFIL troops in accordance with resolution 1701 (2006);

8. Decides to remain seized of the matter.

The Security Council,

Reaffirming its strong commitment to the sovereignty, unity, independence, and territorial integrity of the Sudan, and to the cause of peace, expressing its determination to work with the Government of National Unity, to assist in undertaking various problems facing the Sudan and that a United Nations operations in Darfur shall have, to the extend possible, a strong African participation and character,

Expressing with deep appreciation the efforts of the African Union to find a solution to the crisis in Darfur, including the success of the African Union-led Inter-Sudanese Peace Talks on the Darfur in Abuja, Nigeria, in particular the framework agreed between the parties for a resolution of the conflict in Darfur (the Darfur Peace Agreement),

Commending the efforts of the African Union for the successful deployment of the African Union Mission in the Sudan (AMIS) as well as the efforts of Member States and regional and international organizations that assisted in this deployment,

Deeply disturbed with the ongoing armed conflict in the Darfur region of western Sudan, between the Janjaweed militia group, and the non-Baggara people of the region, might further negatively affect the rest of Sudan as well as the region, in particular Chad; Central African Republic, and both the Republic of the Congo and the Democratic Republic of the Congo; which all have received more than 2.5 million refugees,

Expressing its deep concern for the security of humanitarian aid workers and their access to populations in need, including refugees, internally displaced persons and other war-affected population,

Realizing that the situation in the Sudan represents a threat to international peace and security,

1. Requests the Secretary-General to arrange an additional deployment of resources for UNMIS in Darfur; in particular 5,000 more civilian police personnel and up to 20 Formed Police units, in order to strengthen the structure of the current 17,300-troop UN peacekeeping force in the region no later than May 1, 2008,
2. Requests that the Status of Forces Agreement for UNMIS with the Sudan, as outlined in Resolution 1590 (2005), shall be applied to UNMIS’s operations throughout the Sudan, including Darfur,

3. Requests the Secretary-General to report to the Security Council and the Governments of Chad and Central African Republic conclude status-of-forces agreements on a quarterly basis, and authorizes the Secretary-General during this transition to implement a long-term support AMIS, including air assets, ground mobility package, training, and other communications assistance,

4. Calls upon all Member states to ensure the free and expeditious movement to the Sudan of all personnel, as well as equipment and provision of foods and other supplies, with proper identifications which are for the exclusive and official use of UNMIS in Darfur.
