

Mrs. Bessie Levin Called By Death

Mrs. Bessie Levin, widow of Halman Levin, died 11:30 o'clock last night in her home, 75 Twelfth avenue. Death was due to a complication of diseases and the end came after an illness of about a year. She was sixty-six years of age.

Mrs. Levin was born in Russia, and came to this country in 1897, living in this city since that time. Her husband died in December 1917. She was an active member of the congregation Ahavath Joseph and of several Hebrew Ladies' organizations.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock from the late home, 75 Twelfth avenue, and the service will be in charge of Rabbi Wittenstein, of the Congregation Ahavath Joseph. Interment will follow in the Ahavath Joseph cemetery.

Surviving Mrs. Levin are her five children as follows: Jacob H. Levin, president of the Real Fruit Beverage company; Nathan Levin, a garage owner in New York city; Morris F. Levin, a lawyer of this city; Ula Levin and Mrs. Rae Kessler, of this city.
